

Stone Building Company Earns National Honors From Associated Builders and Contractors for Livano Town Madison

Birmingham, AL, February 27—Stone Building Company today announced work on the Livano Town Madison in Madison, Alabama has earned the company a national Excellence in Construction® Pyramid Award, which was presented during ABC Convention 2025 in Las Vegas on Feb. 26.

The EIC awards recognized 96 of the nation's top construction projects from 2024, honoring the most outstanding construction projects, such as upgrades and renovations to hospitals and constructing hydraulic stations, sports complexes, government buildings and airports.

“This project is the epitome of excellence, demonstrating quality, health, safety and innovation in our industry,” said 2025 Chair of the ABC National Board of Directors David Pugh, partner, Bradley, Birmingham, Alabama. “The teams at Stone Building Company are the best of the best in merit shop construction. Livano Town Madison is an industry-leading construction project, showing how members of ABC build projects safely, on time and on budget. It is an honor to congratulate Stone Building Company for showcasing the pinnacle of construction excellence.”

A panel of industry experts served as the competition's judges. This year's judges included representatives from Dick's Sporting Goods, the Design-Build Institute of America, Engineering News-Record, Construction Owners Association of America, the National Institutes of Health, the National Institute of Building Sciences, the Smithsonian Institution and other select construction-related organizations nationwide.
